THE funeral of the late Mrs. Andrew Rothfuss took place from the German Lutheran Church on yesterday afternoon, and was very largely attended by the sympathizing friends of the bereaved husband and family. An impressive funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Landgraf, after which the remains were taken to Greenwood cemetery, where all that remained of the beloved wife and mother was laid to rest with appropriate ceremonies. The pall-bearers were Wm. Ebert, Frank Myers, William Kossick, Henry Myers, Fred. Weidell and John Blakely.

"The Pettibone Boom."
First and foremost we have the Grant boom, and we have had the temperance boom, the wheat boom, the corn boom, the filter and sewer boom, the tramp boom, the general improvement boom, and we now have the fine residence boom, but the most laughable boom of all the booms was the Silas Pettibone boom, which John Dillon and the Blaisdell comedy combination presented to a large and fashionable audience at the opera house last night, in the play of "Our Next President; or the Dark Horse." Dillon's first and every appearance was the occasion of rapturous applause, and when he disappeared the life of the play seemed to have gone with him, except when the charming Miss Louise Dillon remained to make mischief between her rival lovers, Albert and Julian, causing the former to commit an act that made him a wanderer from his home for six years, and makes Julian insane for the same length of time. Mrs. Dillon has a fine stage presence, and she acted her part with such acceptability that she and her husband, John Dillon, were called before the curtain at the end of the second act amidst thundering applause. The other characters were all well sustained, but the greatest of them all was the inimitable Dillon, who never appeared to a better advantage than last evening. The troupe will appear at Champaign to-night.

The Pleasure Club Ball.
The second ball given under the auspices of Young America Hook & Ladder Company and Rescue Hose Company No. 1, came off last night at firemen's headquarters. The parties are given every two weeks under the management of Chas. W. Hartley, James H. O'Neil, Fred. Willis, John Dempsey, Enos Kepler and A. E. McClelland, a joint committee from both companies, and all to whom invitations are sent will be admitted at 50 cents each. The rooms are splendidly arranged for dancing purposes and are handsomely decorated with pictures, evergreens, etc., the reception room being covered with ocean matting and seated with comfortable chairs. The attendance last night was quite large; twenty numbers were danced to Prof. Goodman's music and a real enjoyable time was had, not a thing happening to mar the pleasure of the occasion. The next ball will be given Dec. 18th.

He Must Have It.
The following is from a former resident of this city, and is a fair specimen of letters we receive from subscribers in different parts of the country almost daily: St. Augustine, Fla., Nov. 28, '79.
MESSRS EDITORS: The weekly Republican continues to be a welcome visitor, for which we feel very thankful for, although it sometimes brings us sad news, yet we could not well do without it, so we enclosed we send you $1.00, please let us know if you get it all right. The drought affects the crops in this neighborhood very badly. Otherwise we are doing as well as could be expected.
Respectfully yours, E. P. TUTTLE.

A. T. HILL, Esq., received a letter to-day from a gentleman in Chicago, who says he represents a firm desirous of obtaining a suitable location for a starch factory. He wants to know the advantages Decatur can offer. A meeting of a number of our leading citizens will be held to-night for the purpose of talking up the matter, and doubtless a committee will be appointed to go to Chicago and confer with the gentleman seeking information. Further particulars to-morrow.

Church Festival.
The ladies of Madison church, in Blue Mount township, will give a festival on Christmas night, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the purchase of an organ for the church. Oysters and other choice edibles will be served in abundance at reasonable rates. Admission free.

A Week's Fair and Festival.
All temperance people in favor of the proposed week's fair and festival to commence at the tabernacle on Christmas eve, are requested to attend the preliminary meeting to be held at the tabernacle on Saturday night.

A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

The First Night of the Grand Fair and Festival at the First M. E. Church—Receipts $150—Go To-night.

It was a scene of beautiful enchantment and dazzling splendor that greeted the eyes of our reporter last night as he entered the lecture room of the First M. E. Church. It was the occasion of the fair and festival given by that congregation, under the general management of Mrs. Robert N. Baker, aided by an enterprising corps of assistants. The room was jammed full of people, and was decorated with exquisite taste with leaves and flowers. The tables were very nicely arranged, and were liberally patronized by the assembled company, among whom we noticed Lieut. and Mrs. B. O. McKernolds, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Loeb, J. R. Race, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Priest, Rev. N. S. Haynes, Fire Chief and Mrs. Wm. Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Busher, Anthony Baer, A. Kramer, Eugene Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Carter, Jr., Miss Nannie Myers, of Blue Mound, Miss Ida Bering, Miss Nannie Smith, of Mt. Zion, Miss Katie Buchart, Miss Dell Whitel, Otto E. Curtis, Lieut. Henry Elwood, C. B. Prescott, Harry Moore, D. J. Block, State's Attorney Buckingham, a good representation of the congregation, and many others.

The genial pastor, Rev. Dr. Goodwin, was everywhere present, and made it his business to greet all visitors pleasantly and see that the boom was kept booming. The various tables named below were in charge of the following persons:
Cashier—Mr. E. S. Roe.
Fancy work table, perfectly beautiful in all its appointments—Mrs. Lieut. O. B. Gorin, assisted by Mrs. Silas Packard, Miss Annie Dill-hunt and Miss Louise Condell.

Ice cream tables.—No. 1, Mrs. Henry Bishop, Mrs. R. W. Waggoner, Miss Adele Bishop and Miss Alice Fuller. No. 2—Mrs. John Swearingen, Miss Sallie McCall and Miss Mary Misencliller.
Candy stand, containing confections ordered from St. Louis—Mrs. George W. Bright, Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. May Booth.

Eight dried grass tables, placed in one corner of the room, containing a magnificent display of dried and bleached grasses ordered from Chicago, including 12 beautiful cream-colored Pampas Plumes, from Southern California, in charge of Mrs. C. M. Imboden and Mrs. J. P. Roach.

Old Time Table.—Representing the fashions of six decades, 1820, 1830, 1840, 1850, 1860 and 1870. A glass basin on this table contained water from the Saukago river, shells from Cayuga Lake, N. Y., and pebbles from Fish Lake, Wisconsin—all arranged by and in charge of Mrs. W. R. Roberts, assisted by Miss Nina Roberts, Miss Abbie Block and Miss Nellie Bishop.
Flower Stand.—Miss Libbie Boyd and Miss Maria Loughbom.
The Four Oyster Tables.—Were in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. R. N. Baker, Mrs. W. E. Hubbard, Mrs. Jane Gehl, Mrs. G. M. Wood, Mrs. W. C. Pitzer, Mrs. Jane Morland, Mrs. Allen Scott, Mrs. Milton Johnson, Mrs. J. E. Hill, Mrs. R. C. Hamaker, Mrs. A. E. Kinney, Mrs. J. M. Stookey, and Mrs. J. P. Boyd.

THE DINNER.
The following named ladies of the congregation, among others, served a splendid dinner in the festival room: Mrs. J. A. Swearingen, Mrs. Lue Armstrong, Mrs. H. W. Waggoner, Miss Sophie Halleck, Mary Wise, Katie Buchart, Jennie Ferguson, Mrs. O. R. Gorin, Mrs. J. P. Roach, Miss Nannie Smith, Miss Myers, Miss Electa Loughbom, Mrs. J. P. Boyd, Mrs. Allen Scott, Mrs. W. C. Pitzer, Mrs. W. E. Hubbard, Mrs. Milton Johnson, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. B. K. Hamaker, Mrs. I. A. Buckingham and Mrs. F. L. Wood. The tables were all liberally patronized by many of our people from various congregations including a number of our prominent citizens, among whom we noticed Judge Smith, of Champaign; Major Emery, of Maroa; Joshua Green, of Whitmore township; States Attorney Foy, of Christian county; Lawyers W. C. Johns and E. S. McDonald; States Attorney Buckingham, Rev. J. R. Locke, W. H. Linn, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bartholomew, Sup't E. A. Gastman, Postmaster Lytle, Thos Penniwell, and Mrs. John Rogers, of St. Louis, and Dr. W. J. Chenoweth.

There were many others whose names we were unable to obtain in the crowd but the above list will indicate that the dinner boom of to-day was as great as that of the fair and festival last night.

Supper will be served to-night on and after 5 o'clock.

The mocking bird, donated by Mrs. E. C. Roach, and the handsome pair of ornate cloths, donated by Abel & Locke, will be sold to-night to the highest bidder.

The fair and festival will close to-night, and all are cordially invited to attend. Admission, 10 cents.

We copy below from Wednesday's edition of the Decatur Republican a notice of Abel & Locke's sale of matting for the circuit court room. And this very important article closes with the statement: "Their prices are the lowest." There are no marks to indicate whether this is a paid advertisement of Abel & Locke's, or a voluntary contribution from the publishers of the REPUBLICAN. The article said stands does not convey the truth, for Abel & Locke know very well that the purchasing agents did not price Linn & Scruggs's matting, for if they had they could doubtless have found better matting at less price, and saved 10 to 20 per cent in this purchase.
Nov. 5, 1879.
LINN & SCRUGGS.
ABEL & LOCKE furnished the circuit court room with the Brussels carpet matting, the judge's stand, the court ornaments that hang in the windows, and the buff curtains that hang in the windows. Their prices are the lowest.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

Items Concerning Various Roads Picked Up Here and There.

A. E. Schrader, traffic manager of the Illinois Midland Road, says that he has contracted with the Erie Car Company for 200 new box cars, which are to be delivered at the rate of twenty-five cars per week, commencing with December 1.

Mr. Henry E. Sealey, of Peoria, a locomotive engineer on the C. R. I. & P. Railroad, had the misfortune to have his jaw broken in a railroad accident some time since, and in sneezing a day or two ago his jaw became again misplaced, and now he has to be fed through a silver tube.

Russell Sage denies that the purchase of the Vanderbilt stock is a stock-jobbing transaction, and says it was brought about because the Wabash railroads wanted communication with the seaboard, which Mr. Vanderbilt gave them. These railroads will hereafter be represented in the Central direction—in fact, they will be one concern—retaining at the same time their individuality. It is probable that a reduction of fares and freights will be brought about.

AN IRON TIE.
An improved iron railroad tie is now proposed—a device which dispenses with all spikes, bolts, nuts or fish plates, and drilling or punching the rails, avoiding fractures from such causes. According to this each tie is recessed under its rails, and along the bottom of the recess, wedge shaped pieces are cast transversely; at the sides of each recess are crescented blocks, which form a cushion and a full-crum for two clamps, which grasp the flange and web of the rail above, bearing upon opposite faces of the wedge below; the weight of the train forces the clamp upon the wedge, spreads them at the bottom and grips the rail. Durability is one of the chief advantages claimed for this device.

SIGNS OF NEW LIFE.

The Mattoon Journal, of the present week, says:

"The work of consolidating the interests of the P. L. & D. railroad and the D. M. & S. road is progressing with great rapidity. Superintendent Cobleigh has already a construction train on the line of the road, righting up the track and putting it in proper condition for the winter. Signs of revived life are everywhere to be seen along the line, and the people generally welcome the new administration. Ticket agent Rupert has just made a visit to all of the offices on the line of the road and inaugurated a new and correct system in the management of the ticket business, which will greatly facilitate and simplify the conduct of this branch of the service. Altogether we predict a prosperous era for the consolidated road."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Misses Nannie Smith and Donna Ulery were in the city on yesterday.

John McRoberts, of Springfield, was a guest at the St. Nicholas yesterday.

Miss Nannie E. Myers, of Blue Mound, is a guest of Mrs. R. N. Baker.

Judge and Mrs. Lincoln, of London, Ohio, are in the city. Mrs. Lincoln is a sister of Mrs. M. E. Schroeder.

Senator David Davis left Bloomington yesterday for Washington, D. C.

J. J. Davis, General Secretary of the Decatur Y. M. C. A., has our thanks for a late Baltimore paper.

Dr. Gregory, president of the Illinois University, will lecture on temperance at Champaign next Sunday.

Miss Jennie Madison, of Tuscola, has been in the city for a number of days, a guest in the family of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Whitist. She will return home Saturday.

Rev. Dr. Goodwin will lecture at the M. E. Church at Monticello on Monday evening next. Subject, "Common Sense." Proceeds to go toward liquidating the church debt at that place.

DIED.

Six miles north of Decatur, at noon, on Thursday, Dec. 4th, 1879, Miss FRANCES MURPHY, in the 75th year of her age.

Deceased is an aunt of Mr. Robert R. Montgomery, of this city. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 6th, at 10 a. m., from the late residence of deceased. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. H. Batson, pastor of the Baptist church.

THERE will be supper at the First M. E. church this evening at 5 o'clock and after. Supper only 25 cents; admission, 10 cents. Another square meal for 35 cents.

Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Bourbon, Ind., known to every one in that vicinity as a most influential citizen and Christian minister of the M. E. Church, says: "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Simon's Catarrh Remedy."

Dr. Simon's Catarrh Remedy, a marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker Mouth and Inflammation. With each bottle there is an ingenious nasal injector for the more successful treatment of the complaint, without extra charge—Price, 50 cents. Sold by Dr. A. J. Stoner, Oct. 1-d&w1f

Decatur in Missouri.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Commercial Gazette, from Macon City, Mo., has the following to say with reference to that town and the Union Iron Works of this city:

"During our brief visit we noted a number of substantial improvements in progress, among which we may mention as being of importance to the grain interest of the county the steam grain elevator erected by H. J. Sharpe & Co. This line of the most progressive and enterprising firms of the place and will merit the thanks of the people of Macon and surroundings for its energy in pushing forward to completion so important an enterprise for the general interest of the town and county. The elevator is a substantial structure with a storage capacity of 20,000 bushels, with power corn sheller attached, capable of shelling 12,000 bushels of corn per day; the building is so conveniently located as to be able to receive grain from wagons on one side and deposit it in the cars on the other. It is completely equipped with all modern and improved machinery and appliances, the machinery, sheller, etc., being furnished by the well-known Union Iron Works of Decatur, Ill. The completion of this establishment is an important acquisition to Macon. It will not only facilitate the handling of grain, but will also create a large scope of country will be drawn there that has heretofore found a market elsewhere."

BROWN'S HOTEL, MACON, GA., 1 Sept. 21, 1879.

DEAR SIR:—In looking over Harper's Weekly paper I saw the advertisement of your valuable medicine, "Constitution Water," and it occurred to me that it was my duty to add to your list of testimonials.

For twelve months I suffered with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder; no rest at night; up 10 or 15 times, could not walk across the street without having palpitation of the heart; would have to sit down and rest before I could get back to the hotel. Last May I was obliged to give up my business, that hotel keeper was reduced in weight forty pounds. In August I made the trip by steamer to New York, thence by steamer to New London, Conn., where I arrived weak and very much debilitated. My brother, J. F. Brown, President of Brown's Cotton Gin Company at New London, sent to the druggist for a bottle of "Constitution Water," and insisted on my taking it, saying that he, and others he knew, had been troubled the same way. It seems incredible, but in two days I began to feel better, my appetite improving, and in a few days was able to walk up to the town, some half mile distant, without getting weary or having any fluttering or palpitation of the heart. In a short time I returned to New York (visited Coney Island, of course), and walked from the Wooden Pier to the Iron Pier, a distance I should judge of nearly one mile, through the sand; also a long distance through Coney Island Park without any inconvenience or distress. I am sixty years of age, have lived in Macon fifty-four years, been in the hotel business twenty-five years, and those that know me know that I would not give this testimonial unless it was due to you, and to those suffering as I have suffered. Diseases similar to mine and other diseases your medicine is recommended for are very prevalent in the South.

Yours truly, F. F. BROWN.

Ask your druggist for it. Dec. 3-d&w1w

Which conveyance was made to secure the payment of one promissory note of said John

W. Hull, dated with said mortgage, in the sum of four thousand ($4,000) dollars, payable to the order of John W. Hull, due in installments from year to year on the 1st of

January, interest payable annually,

and both interest and principal payable with

lawyering charges added, which said

mortgage is duly recorded in the Recorder's office of said Mason county, in book 7, at page 29;

And whereas, it is provided in said

mortgage that in default of payment of principal or interest, or in compliance with the terms and conditions of said note, it shall be the right of the mortgagee to proceed as in said

mortgage stipulated, first giving notice of default for thirty days in some newspaper

published in the county of Decatur, in said

Mason county;

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of the interest due May 1st, A. D.

1879, and the legal holder of said note has made application to the undersigned to proceed and sell said premises, now therefore,

notice is hereby given that the undersigned will, on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1879, at the hour of 12 o'clock m., of said day, at the west outside door of the court house, in the city of Decatur, in said Mason county,

proceed and sell the above-described premises,

together with all the right, interest and equity

therein, to the highest bidder, for cash, and
